1951 MARLINTONIAN

Published by the Senior Class

MARLINTON HIGH SCHOOL

Marlinton, W. Va.

Foreword

Come, let us guide you over the trodden trails pursued by the Knights and Ladies of 1951.

We wish to share with you the tales of our adventures through four years of laughter, work, and our many experiences along the way.

Dedication

We, the Knights of 1951, would like to end our search for the Holy Grail (diploma) by dedicating our diary of adventures to Rev. Don Taylor, who in 1930 first named the annual the MARLINTONIAN, with this book goes our deepest appreciation to Rev. Don Taylor.

Our Adventure Through the Holy Land

SENIOR CLASS OF 1951

September 1947 marked a new and exciting adventure for a group of Knights and Ladies totaling ninety-one. We were starting a pilgrimage through the Holy Land (high school) in search of the Holy Grail (diploma) and many fierce foes (text books) were to be conquered.

The very first obstacle we came to was the "Dark Forest of Freshmen." We needed a guide through this unknown forest so we chose Creola Schumaker and her assistant was Brooks Mason. Richard Byrd kept a diary of the journey. We decided we would need entertainment so we asked Evelyn Curry and Peggy Madison to lead the songs and yells as we marched along. About a month after we began our journey a group of highwaymen (sophomores) swooped down upon us and left us with a very bewildered attitude and we progressed slowly but surely through the rest of the year. At last we were out of the "Dark Forest of Freshmen" and nearing the "River of Vacation". We paused to rest upon the banks and have a roll call. It seems that we had lost some of the Knights and Ladies of our company. There were Sixty-eight of us to continue on our pilgrimage at the end of the first year.

After resting on the banks of the "River of Vacation" for three months, in September 1948 we entered the second dark forest which we soon discovered was "Forest of Sophomores". We still needed an efficient guide so this time we chose Curtis Curry and his assistant was Creola Schumaker. Ramona Wooddell recorded our adventures. We were not so frightened now so we chose Evelyn Curry and Ramona Wooddell to help entertain us. About this time we heard that a strange people had entered the "Forest of Freshmen" so we sent a group of our company (the initiation committee) to welcome them to the Holy Land. Some people from the faraway lands (senior class) presented a play for our amusement entitled "Cracked Nuts". Representatives of our next peril (junior class) also presented a play, "Hobgoblin House," but it scared a number of our followers and as we neared the end of our second year's journey and ventured from the dark forest of Sophomores we had only fifty-eight Knights and Ladies in our company.

We were told that we were over half-way through the Holy Land. Our next peril was Junior Mountain. Many rugged paths were to be followed so we took as our guide Creola Schumaker assisted by Naomi Mazz. Our journey was recorded by Robert Viers and we chose Edna Lee McElwee and Evelyn Curry to help us over the rough passes on the mountain side. We had a motto to keep our spirits high, "Not at the top but climbing." We acquired some treasures as we climbed so Nancy Adkison guarded them with the utmost care. That year we sent a group of entertainers, the Junior Play Cast, which presented "Here Comes Charlie" to the entire Holy Land (high school). We finally climbed to the top of the mountain and slowly marched down the other side. Somewhere along the way we gave a feast for the people from the forest beyond (Junior-Senior Banquet.) It seems the mountain was too steep for some of our Knights and Ladies because we had only fifty people to march the last year of our adventure. We rested for a short time by the bubbling brook of vacation.

September 1950 we entered the last year of our journey. This time we had Curtis Curry assisted by Collett Gibson to guide us. This year's adventure was through the "Forest of Seniors." Craig Sharp kept a record of all the exciting happenings and Bob Viers guarded our hoard of valuables. We decided to write an account of our adventures so that the people plodding along in our footsteps would realize the fun and the work we had experienced. By this time we were beginning to see the light on the other side of the forest. We were honored by a feast near the end of the year, then suddenly we submerged into an opening at the edge of the forest and there stood a momentous tree "The Tree of Knowledge." Lying at the base of the tree was the coveted and precious treasure for which we had searched so many years, "The Holy Grail" (our diploma). Without realizing it we had acquired knowledge along the way and we had enjoyed the four years spent in the Holy Land (high school) more than we can express in this diary of our journey.

Senior

We, the members of the Senior Class of nineteen hundred fifty-one, being of sound mind and realizing that our days in M. H. S. are growing short in number, do hereby make, publish, and declare our Last Will and Testament:

I, NANCY ADKISON, do hereby will my position as President of the ADD's to Barbara Moses, saying "It's no snap, my dear."

I, MARY ANN BIGGS, do hereby will a book of stamps to anyone who has written as many letters to a soldier as I have.

I, ROBERT BRIGHT, do hereby will to Colleen Moore my pretty wavy hair.

I, STERLING BROYLES, do hereby will my desire to be an aviator to the Air Force saying "Uncle Sam will get me soon enough anyhow."

I, BETSY CLARK, do hereby will my ability to play basketball to All American Red Heads hoping they can use me soon.

I, CURTIS CURRY, do hereby will my positions as President of the National Honor Society, Varsity M-Club, and the Senior Class to Lee White who is quite as capable of all the jobs as I was.

I, EVELYN CURRY, do hereby will my talent to do so many things to all the girls who are jealous of me.

I, ANNA JEAN DAETWYLER, do hereby will my clarinet to Mr. Brill hoping he will find someone who will practice as faithful as I have.

I, GRACE DEAN, do hereby will my quiet ways in the halls to Jennie Sharp.

I, MARSHALL DEPUTY, do hereby will my ability to get my grades cut in English to the Juniors and hope Miss Smith will be easier on them next year.

I, ELDON FERTIG, do hereby will my love for good books to anyone who can read more of them than I did.

I, ROBERT GAY, do hereby will my ability for making A's in Vo-Ag and only getting B's to Stan McNeill.

I, COLLETT GIBSON, do hereby will my football player's physique to Bubbles Moore.

I, HOWARD GIBSON, do hereby will my system for passing Senior English to Herb Morrison. (He sure will need it.)

I, JENNIE HOWARD, do hereby will my place as majorette to Pat McNeill.

I, BETTY JACKSON, do hereby will my job as Nurses Aid at the hospital to Lenora Dilley who, I hope, will work as faithful as I did.

I, GRAY JACKSON, do hereby will my Air Rifle to Red Ryder with which to advertise in magazines for "the rifle that assures the perfect shot."

I, RAY HANNAH, do hereby will my Senior English Book to my sister, Evelene, and hope she will make more use of it than I did.

I, CECILE LaROSE, do hereby will my ability to make dumb mistakes to anyone who thinks he can get by with it.

I, BETTY LIPTRAP, do hereby will my ability to write shorthand to Pat McNeill. Gee, wouldn't she look cute sitting on her boss's knee.

I, EDDIE LINEBAUGH, do hereby will my talents to Broadway saying "Watch for me on T-V."

I, BETTY LONG, do hereby will my Pepsodent smile to Life Magazine to use in advertising.

I, NAOMI MACE, do hereby will my job as A. D. D. Treasurer to Ann Richardson hoping she will get along with the salesmen as well as I have and also enjoy getting out of class as much as I did.

I, PEGGY MADISON, do hereby will to Barbara Deputy the motto: "If at first you don't succeed, try again."

Wills

I, LOUIS McCLURE, do hereby will my locker to anyone who will clean it.

I, CURTIS McKENNY, do hereby will my bashfulness to Tom Malcom hoping it will keep him out of trouble.

I, JAMES MALCOM, do hereby will my love for "A. J." to some wonderful guy she might meet in college saying "Handle with care!"

I, BROOKS MASON, do hereby will my position on the All-Tournament Team to Kenny Mace and hope Marlinton High can be Champs next year.

I, KENDALL McNEILL, do hereby will to Kenneth Hamrick my flirting ways although he does not need them.

I, CLYDE MULLENS, do hereby will my ability to play a guitar to Jim Curry to serenade Jane every night.

I, JOHN MULLENS, do hereby will my Hillsboro sweater back to the owner since I can't wear it to school. Someone might as well use it.

I, VIRGINIA MULLENS, do hereby will my love for mischief to all the "kids" on the bus so it will still be as lively as before.

I, BARBARA NELSON, do hereby will my FFA Chapter Sweetheart jacket to Patsy Wooddell and hope she will not be as scared at the banquet as I was.

I, BETTY PENNINGTON, do hereby will my long chestnut curls to Goldie Hammons.

I, GLENNA JEAN RHEA, do hereby will to Regena Hannah my locker and everything in it.

I, ROBERT RAINES, do hereby will my love for playing string music to the Junior Class to use at a talent show when they need to make some money.

I, BILLY REYNOLDS, do hereby will my artistic ability to Miss Peggy Smith since she liked that picture of a horse I drew so well.

I, CREOLA SCHUMAKER, do hereby will my ability to make good grades to Vera Ann Vallandingham.

I, CRAIG SHARP, do hereby will my halo and wings to Keith Moore and Julian Hively.

I, NORMAN SHAW, do hereby will my set of keys to "Blue Boy" to Tom until I get back from college.

I, DOROTHY STUART, do hereby will my Latin Book to Miss Smith and hope she can find someone to use it more than I did.

I, Harry Tyree, do hereby will my love for pestering people to Bob Dilley so he will achieve the title "World Champion Nuisance."

I, BETTY SHINABERRY, do hereby will my dimples to Kay Gibson. What else does she lack?

I, EDDIE VAN REENAN, do hereby will my ability to farm to Tom Shaw to help furnish the Army with all the food supplies they need in Korea.

I, ROBERT VIERS, do hereby will to Coach Miller my physique so he will have a heavier football team next year.

I, KATHLEEN WARE, do hereby will my natural curls to Peggy Moore to use when you can no longer buy Toni's.

I, RAMONA WOODDELL, do hereby will my diamond ring to Helen Astin to wear until she gets hers from Eddie.

I, ROBERT WILLIAMS, do hereby will to Jim Davis my knack for making up tardy excuses in the morning while still half asleep.

I, FRED JOHNSON, do hereby will my ability to take my girl home any hour of the night (morning) and get by with it to Fred Shafer.

Senior

In 1951 after twelve years of searching for the Holy Grail (diploma) and many adventures through dark and mysterious forests we attained our destination and set out to make adventures through the Holy Land. The Knights and Ladies separated and progressed in various directions.

In 1975 we are now following those Knights and Ladies to see where they have settled and just what they are doing.

We mount our trusty steeds and slowly start across the land. We pause to rest at a small inn which we are informed is managed by none other than Eddie VanReenen and Eldon Fertig. We are served a delicious meal by Mary Ann Biggs, who is their cook and a wonderful one.

We remount and continue on our way, our guide throughout our journey is Howard Gibson from Hire-a-Guide Inc. which is run by Robert Raines while he is on vacation from Ringley Brothers Circus as their main attraction, "The World's Fattest Man."

By this time we have arrived near Washington, D. C. We are given many opportunities of using modern transportation but we still prefer our horses. As we near that city we hear of the election which is taking place. Robert Viers is running for Vice President, his campaign manager is Jennie Howard (Viers) of course. It seems his opponent is the Robert Williams who just resigned as Secretary of Interior to run for Vice-President. Before we enter the city the election is over and the votes are counted. Mr. Viers is the new Vice-President. Oh! yes, Mr. Harry Truman is still President and the Korean affair has never been settled. President Truman has sent General Craig Sharp back to Japan to oversee the next advancement.

While in Washington we visit the F.B.I. and find Naomi Mace, Peggy Madison and Barbara Nelson patiently searching old records and fingerprints for some clue to the Dog-House Thief.

We finally leave the city and travel farther north passing many farms along the way. The largest one being owned by Louis McClure.

We have now come to the largest city in the world, yes, New York City. Much to our disappointment we find that horses are not allowed on Broadway since Curtis McKenney became Mayor and we must dismount and aboard a streetcar owned by Sterling Broyles Transportation Co.

As we whizz down Broadway we see so many familiar names flashing on and off on the marquee signs, we decide to visit some of the theatres. The first one we visit is owned by the great British actor, Fred Johnson, and the play is the famous "Macbeth" by Shakespeare. I believe we studied that play as Seniors in M.H.S. in 1951.

While in New York we visit the famous night club, "The Rambler" owned and operated by Eddie Linebaugh who is also the drummer for the most famous orchestra in America-Brooks Mason's.

Oh! I almost forgot when we were in Baltimore, Maryland we visited the John Hopkins Hospital and were informed that Nancy Adkinson was the head nurse. Betty Jackson was her assistant. Betty always did like nursing.

Now the time has come to journey across the states. Our horses are rested so we mount them and gallop into the wild, wild west. As we cross the state line between Nebraska and Colorado we are stopped by an officer of the Law. He looks like a sheriff but by his garb you would think he was a cowboy. Wh/, my goodness its Kendall McNeill. He forgot to polish his Sheriff badge this morning. He warned us to be on the lookout for a couple desperate characters Billy Reynolds and James Malcom who have decided to conquer the West.

We continue our journey cautiously because we prefer peace. As we cross the Painted Desert in Arizona we are offered taxi-service by the "Calhoun Desert Hoppers," a cab company owned by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Calhoun. Mrs. Calhoun is the former Miss Glenna Jean Rhea.

We crossed into California and visited the Golden Gate Bridge, while there we got a glimpse of Virginia Mullens on her way to the docks to meet her husband, Admiral Kenneth Mullens on his way home from Korea.

Prophecy

Next we decide to go to Texas and of course we had to cross Arizona again. This time we met Norman Shaw and Gray Jackson on their way to Hollywood. They had just signed a contract with Paramount Movie Agency to play the roles of Red Ryder and Little Beaver. After discussing many things with them we progress to Texas where we find Creola Schumaker, oh no, Crelo Wilson running a jack rabbit farm while her husband Bill Wilson instructs the Jet Plane Class at Lackland Air Base.

We visit Texas Western University and find many of our old schoolmates on the faculty list. Professor of English is Harry Tyree and their coach is the famous Curtis Curry. The team has won many victories throughout the basketball and football seasons.

We are on the trail once more and gallop we must for we have a long way to go. We are crossing the southern states. We stop in Louisiana and find Robert Bright catching flies for a jam factory—Oh! I mean a baseball team.

We cross Georgia into the Orange State, Florida. We visit Miami Beach and who do you suppose is lifeguard, yes you guessed it! Collett Gibson with his handsome physique.

They were in the midst of a bathing beauty contest and who do you suppose was the judge—Ray Hannah—and the winner, oh yes, Ramona Wooddell Sharp, they finally found her after seaching the Florida swamps since 1951. Of course Styrl is furious because now all the men will get to look at her.

Why we are in Alabama already and we hear that "The All-American Red Heads" are playing their last game of the season. Their manager is Betty Clark as she is too short to play.

We decide to visit Nashville, Tennessee and the Grand Ole Opry. The Mullens Brothers have taken Eddie Arnold and Roy Acuff's place. Their record "Gals of West Virginia" is No. 1 on the nations hit parade. It seems Johnny was referring to his blonde from Hillsboro. Clyde meant Eva Jane Davis of course. Just tune your radio down Nashville way, you can hear them most anytime of the day.

We were told not to miss the tobacco auction at Louisville, Kentucky because there we would hear the fastest auctioneer in the world, yes it is the chatterbox of the Senior Class of '51, Marshall Deputy.

We pull rein on our faithful horses and slowly dismount because we are finally back in West Virginia at Marlinton. Many of the Knights and Ladies remained near the Castle of Marlinton High School. Mr. Yeager is still the principal but we see Anna Jean Daetwyler is the American History teacher and she is really hated by the students just because of her position in M.H.S. Is stems Cecile LaRose is the Home Ec teacher and Home Demonstration Agent. She always was quite a homemaker. As we walk our horses along the familiar roads we hear that Joans Ellay, reporter for the Marlinton Journal is writing an article on our journey.

Our horses need grooming and we decide to let them enjoy the benefits of "Betties Beauty Shoppee." The owners are Betty Liptrap, Betty Long and Betty Pennington. That may seem rather odd but after such faithful service they deserve the best.

Flash! Flash! Miss Dorothy Stuart just became Mayoress of Richwood, Dot always did love Richwood even back in 1950 and '51.

We remount and ride slowly around the countryside. We meet Bob Gay, the county agent. It seems he had been making a tour of Pocahontas County Farms. He directed us to the "Moore Haven," the farm of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Moore. Evelyn thinks little Tommy is the very image of his father. We do too.

It seems that one lady remained at home, no she is just home on vacation. Miss Grace Dean is now employed by the publishing company that prints the text books, M.H.S. uses. And as always there isn't any sabotage in the book industry.

That seems to end our adventures so we will let our horses rest and pause for refreshments at Betty Shinaberry's roadside inn, Knight's and Ladies Retreat.
